

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.
Grand Forks Public Health Department

Grand Forks Mosquito Control

Average Daily Trap Count – September 2017

West Nile virus identified in Grand Forks region.
Please take the necessary precautions to avoid mosquito bites.

Use an insect repellent that contains DEET.

Limit outdoor activities between dusk and dawn when mosquitoes are most active.

Wear long pants and long-sleeved shirts when possible.

Beware of mosquitoes while gardening.

Eliminate standing water around your property.

- Citywide Ground Spraying

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.
Grand Forks Public Health Department

Grand Forks Mosquito Control

Average Daily Trap Count – August 2017

- Citywide Ground Spraying

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.
Grand Forks Public Health Department

Grand Forks Mosquito Control

Average Daily Trap Count – July 2017

 - Citywide Ground Spraying

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.
Grand Forks Public Health Department

Grand Forks Mosquito Control

Average Daily Trap Count – June 2017

West Nile virus identified in Grand Forks region.
Please take the necessary precautions to avoid mosquito bites.

- Use an insect repellent that contains DEET.
- Limit outdoor activities between dusk and dawn when mosquitoes are most active.
- Wear long pants and long-sleeved shirts when possible.
- Beware of mosquitoes while gardening.
- Eliminate standing water around your property.

 - Citywide Ground Spraying